Dear Jack,
 I am glad to (see you) receive a letter from you. Sorry for not writing for a long time. I was busy preparing for my exams. I can answer it now. From your letter I've understood that you changed school and you didn't find new friends. I met my best friend in the first school it was so long ago. His name is John. He likes playing football, reading books, swimming. We often spend time together. We usually watch TV, go for a walk, play football. That's all for you now. Looking forward hearing from you.

Best wishes.

Some people claim that body positive is a propaganda of an unhealthy way of life.

The question of leading a healthy life has been currently important and unsettling during the last decade and nowadays, it still arouses the wide concern. Some people consider that proper nutrition stays the most significant factor affecting human well-being while others claim that healthy lifestyle presents the full range of practical measures not limited to a well-balanced diet.

As far as I am concerned, health care should not be confined to simply following the adequate diet.
